Napanee Saan store boosts Easter Seals

By Adam Bramburger

A LTHOUGH most Newburgh area residents might never see a live Eastern Loggerhead Shrike, some of the local naturalists have taken steps to ensure the endangered birds don’t go unnoticed.

With the help of provincial and national conservation associations, the Lennox and Addington Stewardship Council and business partners, the Kingston Field Naturalists have erected a permanent, colourful sign along the south end of Newburgh. The sign was unveiled on Friday.

Shrike protection gets more visible

By Adam Bramburger

LITERALLY most Newburgh area residents might never see a live Eastern Loggerhead Shrike, some of the local naturalists have taken steps to ensure the endangered birds don’t go unnoticed.

With the help of provincial and national conservation associations, the Lennox and Addington Stewardship Council and business partners, the Kingston Field Naturalists have erected a permanent, colourful sign along the south end of Newburgh. The sign was unveiled on Friday.

Shrike protection gets more visible

By Adam Bramburger

Man charged after infant found out of car seat

By Adam Bramburger

NAPANE OPP officers take child to Children's Aid on Friday after a complaint of child abandonment was received on Thursday. The child was found unattended in a car seat.

The three-year-old boy was found unattended in the back seat of a vehicle. The child was taken to the Children's Aid Society.

The investigation continues.